When you're buying from Craigslist, it's always better to be safe than sorry. You can find a machine on eBay and forget about eBay when you're looking for used sewing machines online. Included are a printed Quick Start guide, and a complete instructions manual in English and in Spanish. You should never agree to meet a seller alone or in a private place. Here are some tips on how to find a good used sewing machine online. Find Sewing Machine Retailers Online You might be surprised by how many retailers sell sewing machines online. How do you find the right sewing machine for your needs? Some sellers are even willing to barter or trade with you for a used sewing machine. It's also important to protect yourself when visiting a seller. Whether you're designing and making clothes or creating draperies or other items for the home, you can sew your own outfitts and decor easily. If you're new to sewing and want a machine to learn on, look at older machines made of metal with metal inner workings, such as older Singer sewing machines. You can search by brand or price point, and you can narrow down your search in several ways. To initially inspect the machine, you don't want it to spin fast. What appears to be a small amount of rust can be enough to do a lot of damage to a used sewing machine. Newer machines that make a variety of stitch styles provide design potential, but it's at the cost of a machine that doesn't last as long. Inspect it for Missing Parts and Screws! It's hard to find parts for used sewing machines, especially older ones, and everything has to fit together perfectly for a machine to function properly. One of the nice things about eBay is that the site offers buyer protection so that you're not at a loss if something happens to the machine in transit. Look for Other Online Auctions or Estate Sales!
